“I am totally going to Facebook-stalk him today!”

stalk (verb)-
1. To engage in an action directed at a specific person that seeks to cause harm.
2. To knowingly place a person in fear of harm or death.

What were you trying to say?
I am going to look him up on Facebook.
friend him
find him

Think about the power your words can carry.

By using the word “stalk” or “stalking” casually, we minimize the experience for stalking victims. This can keep victims silent and allow perpetrators to get away with a dangerous and sometimes deadly crime.
